The image shows a musical score for a guitar piece titled 'Bass in f' by Rondo Rottenburgh. The score is in bass clef and has a key signature of one flat (B-flat). Below the score, there are three fingerings (1, 2, 3) and a fretboard diagram. The fretboard diagram consists of three rows of circles representing frets, with symbols indicating fingerings: solid circles for closed, open circles for open, and half-filled circles for half or partly closed. The first row represents the thumb, the second row the left hand, and the third row the right hand. The fretboard extends to the 24th fret.
